

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

SALITA PROMOTIONS CORP.,

Plaintiff,

v.

SHOHJAHON ERGASHEV and
OLEG BOGDANOV,

Defendants.

Case No. 20-12547

Honorable Laurie J. Michelson

---

ORDER REGARDING BOND

---

A few days ago, the Court granted Salita Promotions a temporary restraining order and ordered Salita to post a bond of $10,000. The point of the bond was clear: should it be the case that Shohjahon Ergashev should not have been restrained from fighting in today's bout, the amount of the bond would help cover Ergashev's damages. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(c) ("The court may issue a preliminary injunction or a temporary restraining order only if the movant gives security in an amount that the court considers proper to pay the costs and damages sustained by any party found to have been wrongfully enjoined or restrained.").

Upon receiving inquiries from Salita's counsel, the Court issues this order to clarify how the bond should be posted. Salita should either pay $10,000 to the Clerk of Court or obtain a surety bond in the amount of $10,000 and docket proof that the surety bond has been obtained. Any questions about the first option, paying $10,000 to the court, should be directed to the Financial Department of the U.S. District Court by calling (313) 234–5070.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: September 21, 2020
